In a medium bowl, pour boiling water over gelatin; stir until dissolved. Add the cold water and lemon juice; chill until partially set. Fold in apples, celery and nuts. Pour into lightly oiled 6 cup mold or a 9 inch square baking pan. Chill until set, 4 to 6 hours or overnight. Serve on lettuce. Garnish with apple and celery leaves if desired.

Dip the mold in warm water right up to the top of the rim (but not seeping over into the Jell-O) for about a minute and then cover the open side of the mold with a plate, flip over. If the Jell-O doesn't pop out onto the plate easily, dip the mold in warm water again and repeat.
