

This cake is simply amazing, I made it a couple of times for my get together last year, but really should have made two of them, it is so delicious! The cake alone without the whipped cream filling/frosting is really good, but of course much better with the frosting.

Mix the cornstarch with a little pineapple juice until smooth. Combine in a saucepan with the rest of the juice, half a cup of the sugar and the salt. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Stir in the pineapple and cool.

Beat the egg whites until stiff but not dry; then beat in the remaining sugar. Fold into the pineapple mixture and fill the pie shell. Chill. Serves 6 to 8.

Chiffon and angel food cakes are baked in tube pans so the inner tube provides support for the center of this rather delicate batter as it rises, then sets.
